LSU Pediatrics / Children's Hospital Play a Major Role in New SCID Treatment Research Protocol

Faculty members of LSU Pediatrics Hematology Oncology/HSCT and Allergy Immunology are part of the Primary Immunodeficiency Treatment Consortium (PIDTC) [Dr. Lolie Yu, site PI]. The PIDTC 10th Annual Scientific Workshop was held virtually on April 29, 2020. A highlight of the meeting was an update on the new research protocol: Conditioning SCID Infants Diagnosed Early (C-SIDE). LSU Pediatrics/Children's Hospital is one of only 26 sites activated to enroll patients. Remarkably, our institution has enrolled 2 out of only 12 infants accrued nationally to date (only 8 centers have accrued subjects to date)! This new protocol seeks to determine the lowest dose of busulfan (conditioning chemotherapy used for transplant) needed to achieve full T and B cell immune reconstitution in SCID. Congratulations to the hematopoietic stem cell transplant team, the immunology team, clinical and research nurses and the Clinical Trials Center (CTC) in the collaborative care and research surrounding these complex infants!

Recent Scholarly Activity

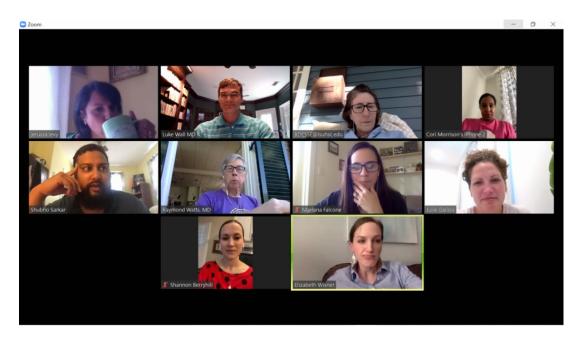

A manuscript Dr. Amanda Dumas co-authored with researchers at Pennington Biomedical Research Center, San Chu and Dr. Ronald Horswell, was accepted for publication in Journal of Adolescent Health and will appear in an upcoming issue under the title "Analysis of Pregnancy and Birth Rates among Black and White Medicaid-Enrolled Teens."

Wellness Update

Dr. Gail Gazelle hosted a clinician support session earlier this week and had the chance to discuss this quote and explore how mindful awareness can help us cope in challenging times. In case you missed the session, you can access the replay here.

Look out for emails from Chief Wellness Officer Dr. Jerussa Aita-Levy this week about another social. Faculty shared fantastic stories of thriving through COVID-19 at last week's meeting (pictured below). It was wonderful time connecting and knowing that laughter is the best medicine! Thanks also to Dr. Luke Wall for helping to coordinate this virtual event.

Resident Class of 2020 Spotlight

The COVID Pandemic has certainly changed many aspects of our daily lives and will affect how we typically celebrate our graduates via a large Hello-Goodbye Ceremony. Each week, leading up to their final days of training, our residency team will highlight the graduating residents. Please join us in celebrating these excellent pediatricians at the departmental level...give them some shout outs in the hallway over the next few weeks! We thank all of our "almost graduates" for three wonderful years of dedication to their patients, their peers, and to LSU Pediatrics/Children's Hospital. You will do GREAT things, and we will miss you all.

Nick Algu, MD

From: Thibodaux, LA

College: Tulane University

Medical School: LSU New Orleans After Graduation: Pediatrician at Collins Pediatrics, New Orleans Talents: I'm a really good dancer. Interesting Fact: I once danced on

ESPN in a banana suit.

Advice you wished you'd known during residency: You're smarter than you think!

Evaluation Highlights: "Nick is always positive and a wonderful team player.

He fosters a welcoming learning environment. Great communicator.

Understanding, patient, helpful. Great leader."

Michael Caffery, MD

College & Graduate School: Tulane Medical School: LSU New Orleans

Orleans is my new home

After Graduation: Pediatrician at Daughter's of Charity, New Orleans Talents: Singing (ask me about Barret's Esophagus), ukulele, fun math, minesweeper Interesting Fact: I am always cold, to the point that I wear sweaters in New Orleans summers. (Before you ask-I've had my thyroid checked and I'm fine!) Advice you wished you'd known during residency: You will grow more than seems possible. Stress is temporary, growth is forever. Evaluation Highlight: "I have never met a person who cares more for the patients he takes care of nor feels more accountable for their well-being than him. Michael is the definition of altruism, compassion, and intelligence. I am a better resident and person for having worked with him."

May Video: Feedback

Feedback remains a core teaching skill, crucial for learners of all levels whether in person or utilizing technology. In the fall we visited division meetings offering faculty development on Specific Feedback. For those who weren't able to attend a session, and those who would like a refresher, we are offering the content of that session here. This PowerPoint will take less than 10 minutes to review (videos included). Let's all continue to provide excellence in our educational mission.
