The LSU Department of Medicine Weekly Communication

Dr. Nisha Loganantharaj (Gastroenterology) was recently invited to serve on the Intestinal Ultrasound Group of the US and Canada (iUSCAN) Communications committee. Great job, Dr. Loganantharaj.

Dr. Farshid Yazdi (Nephrology) was featured on a Fox8 segment that aired on Tuesday, August 8th. He gave a succinct and engaging talk on the dangers of uncontrolled blood pressures and the importance of screening for hypertension. You can watch the segment at the link below. Congratulations Dr. Yazdi!
