

DOM NEWS BLAST

The LSU Department of Medicine Weekly Communication

The ACGME recently reviewed all the Internal Medicine related residencies and fellowships for New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Lafayette. We have received notification of Continued Accreditation for all of our training programs. Congratulations to all of our Program Directors, Associate Program Directors, Program Coordinators and Core Faculty. This accomplishment could not be done without you!

Residency Programs: Emergency Medicine: Dr. Matthew Carlisle, Dr. Pierre Detiege, Dr. Elizabeth Clement, Dr. Randy Sorge, Dr. Nicole Kaban

Internal Medicine (Baton Rouge): Dr. Dean Lauret, Dr. Angie Johnson (Lafayette): Dr. Daniel Stout, Dr. Farha Khan, Dr. Tina Benoit-Clark, (New Orleans): Dr. Lee Engel, Dr. Shane Sanne, Dr. Cacky Hebert

Medicine/Pediatrics: Dr. Katie Brown, Internal Medicine/Emergency Medicine: Dr. Jorge Martinez, Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation: Dr. Patrick Owens

Fellowship Programs:

Cardiovascular Disease: Dr. Neeraj Jain, Electrophysiology: Dr. Paul LeLorier, Endocrinology: Dr. Taniya de Silva, Gastroenterology: Dr. Danny Raines, Geriatric Medicine: Dr. Tom Reske, Hematology & Oncology: Dr. Brian Boulmay, Hyperbaric Medicine: Dr. Micah Siegel, Infectious Diseases: Dr. Victoria Burke, Interventional Cardiology: Dr. Scott Laura, Nephrology: Dr. Farshid Yazdi, Pain Management: Dr. Casey Murphy, Pulmonary & Critical Care: Dr. Stephen Kantrow, Rheumatology: Dr. Stephen Lindsey

SSCI Awards: The Department of Medicine had tremendous representation by residents from Internal Medicine Program, Internal Medicine/Emergency Medicine Program, Internal Medicine/Pediatrics Program and medical students at the Annual Meeting of the Southern Society for Clinical Investigation (SSCI).

Dr. David Beyer (IM Resident) and Lauren Gawey (4th year Medical student) received Cardiovascular Case Report Awards.

Residents in Action at SSCI

Pictured:

Dr. Amanda Ritchie, Dr. Jessica Bordes, Dr. Michelle Livitz, Dr. Humza Malik, Dr. Fernanda Correa, Dr. David Beyer, Dr. Chris Van Dreumel, Dr. David Van.

Not Pictured:

Residents: Dr. Tayana Rodriguez, Dr. Ashley Misky, Dr. Meaghan Bank, Dr. Arash Ataei, Dr. Emily Riley

Medical Students: Elia El Hajj, Calvin Rome, Lauren Gawey, Shreya Gunda, Stacey Knowles, Mary Teeler, Parker Yount, Harrison Millar

We submitted 32 abstracts: 27 were presented as posters and 5 were oral presentations.

Dr. Lauren Richey, Dr. Yussef Bennani (Infectious Diseases) and Dr. Robin English were part of the team that has been preliminarily selected to participate in the Midwest Integration of the National HIV Curriculum (MINHC) project, which is slated to run from March 1, 2023, to August 31, 2027. The funds provided will allow the team to develop and integrate HIV curriculum.

Dr. Meredith Clement (Infectious Diseases) was recently interviewed on the WWL-TV Morning News regarding National African American HIV/AIDS Awareness Day, February 7th. The website below will take you to the excellent interview with Dr. Clement.

<https://www.wvltv.com/video/news/local/morning-show/dr-meredith-clement-on-national-african-american-hiv-aids-awareness-day/289-a9d7a3a3-df68-4581-92c5-51a487f54d1c>

Dr. Michelle Loch and Dr. Tom Reske (Hematology/Oncology) have been invited to speak at the upcoming Louisiana Oncology Society Third Annual Cancer Congress to be held in New Orleans March 31 – April 1.

Great job!