The LSU Department of Medicine Weekly Communication

Dr. Mehnaz Rahman (Cardiology) was recently selected to be part of the 2023 American College of Cardiology (ACC) Emerging Faculty Leadership Academy. This is a highly competitive appointment in the ACC. The goal of this course is to develop the knowledge and skills for faculty committed to contributing to ACC's education mission and to facilitate the transfer of evolved competence into practice.

Congratulations, Dr. Rahman!

Dr. Pia Chowdry (Hematology-Oncology) has been selected to give an oral presentation at the 2023 Annual Meeting for the American Society of Clinical Oncology. Her talk is entitled "The Long Road to Equity: Life in Cancer Alley".

Congratulations Dr. Chowdry!

Dr. Agustin Garcia (Hematology-Oncology) was selected to present at the 2023 Best of American Society of Clinical Oncology – Los Angeles on Gynecological Malignancies. In addition, he will serve on a "Gyn and GU Stump the Faculty" panel.

Good luck, Dr. Garcia!

Dr. Mihran Naljayan (Nephrology) recently published a paper on the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and lessons learned regarding home dialysis. The authors found the clinical benefits seen in home over center-based dialysis treatment were more apparent during the COVID-19 pandemic, but increased utilization of home dialysis did not occur.

Great Job, Dr. Naljayan!
