The LSU Internal Medicine, Internal Medicine-Pediatrics, and Internal Medicine-Emergency Medicine Residency Programs recently held a well-attended graduation celebration at the Roosevelt. In addition to honoring our graduating residents and chief residents, Dr. John Amoss received a standing ovation for his years of service to LSU and for the impact he has had on hundreds of physicians who trained with him.

LSU's Pulmonary/Critical Care Fellowship Program was one of the Top 10 teams that competed in the 2023 CHEST Challenge online quiz! Dr. Oluwafemi Ajibola, a first year Pulmonary/Critical Care fellow, led the way to victory. He will receive either free registration to CHEST 2023 in Hawaii or free registration to a 2023 CHEST Board Review Course or 2023 Board Review On-Demand product. Way to go!

Dr. Michael Okoronkwo (EM PGY 3) was recently named a Cobb Scholar of the W. Montague Cobb/National Medical Association Health Institute for his research work on health inequity and disparities. Congratulations Dr. Okoronkwo!

LSU is Going Hollywood!
