Dr. Ben Springgate, Dr. Elyse Stevens, Dr. Gala True, Isha Matta, Dr. Wesley Villavicencio Torres (Section of Community and Population Medicine / Center for Healthcare Value and Equity), Dr. Tiffany Ardoin (LSU Internal Medicine – Baton Rouge), together with community and academic colleagues of the Community Resilience Learning Collaborative and Research Network (C-LEARN) published a University Partnership Research Brief through Louisiana Department of Health entitled the “Promoting Resilience Among Medicaid Members with Opioid Use Disorder (PROUD) Study.”

The Internal Medicine Special Interest group held their first meeting of the year. A record breaking 64 students attended to hear Dr. Brown discuss all about Internal Medicine and answer questions from the group. A special thanks to Dr. Fred Lopez who serves as a faculty advisor.

Shout Out to our Code Grey and Recovery Teams at UMC and Ochsner Kenner.

We appreciate you!
