

Wellness Committee

The charge to the Wellness Committee is to promote a health learning environment, stress reduction, and personal well-being among faculty, staff, residents, and students in the School of Medicine and the LSU Health Sciences Center

The committee is comprised of faculty members in the basic science and clinical departments as well as student representatives.