

Curriculum Renewal Committee

The primary responsibility is engagement in continuous quality improvement of the medical school educational program by conducting periodic curriculum reviews, incorporating recommendations from the Curriculum Steering Committee and feedback from various data sources and other curriculum committees (e.g., students, faculty, performance data). This committee has the authority to consider and implement minor changes to the curriculum and to recommend major changes to the Curriculum Steering Committee. The committee meets 3-4 times per year (more frequently as needed).