

AESCULAPIAN SOCIETY

We will have elections for these positions starting in October

MISSION

Promote the amicable exchange of opinion between the student body and faculty, with a view to the consistent and scientific standards of the School of Medicine. In addition, the Society endeavors to aid in any way possible the various classes, faculty, and other organizations of the School of Medicine.

CONTACTS

President:
Claire Saux
(vsaux@lsuhsc.edu)

Vice President:
Leanne Sorrel
(msorr1@lsuhsc.edu)

L2 Class Coordinator:
Grace Sheets
(gshee2@lsuhsc.edu)

L2 Class Editor:
Ross Hightower
(rhigh@lsuhsc.edu)

BENEFITS

Gain insight into the development and evolution of our medical school curriculum.

Develop inter-professional relationships with faculty.

Relay the praise, concerns, and suggestions of the class regarding our curriculum in faculty-Aesculapian meetings.

Compile real-time and end-of-course survey data regarding curriculum changes and student comments.

MEMBERSHIP

$40 dues

2-4 General meetings per semester

1 Course Evaluation Committee (CEC) meeting per semester

01

Course Feedback

Students provide real time course feedback. Representatives organize comments and present them to faculty while maintaining students' anonymity.

Gross and Developmental Anatomy

1. What form of content are you commenting on? [?]

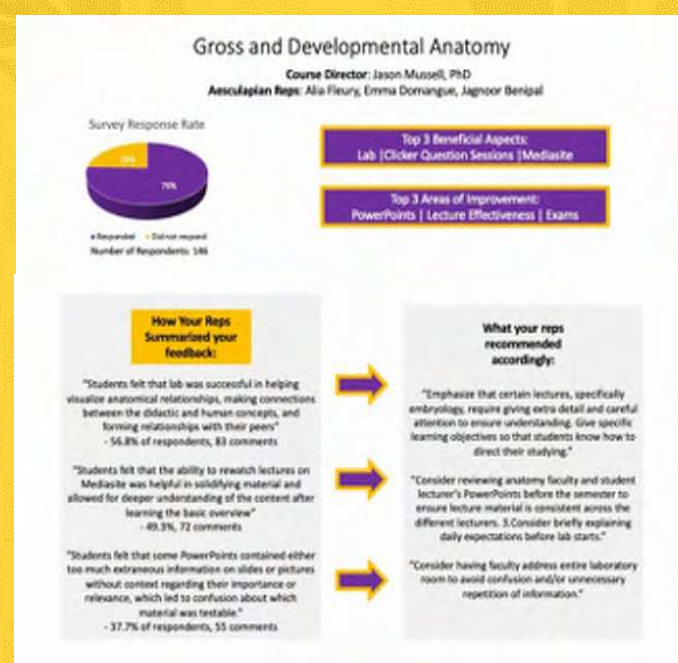

- Lecture
- Lab
- Guest Lecture
- Resources
- Homework
- Other

Submit

02

Course Evaluation

Course representatives compile survey data and meet with faculty to discuss curriculum changes. A full report and quick snapshot are created to summarize the data.

03

Annual Banquet

Members of the Aesculapian Society nominate basic science and clinical faculty for the Excellence in Teaching Award. The award is presented at the annual banquet.

