

BMWC Interest Group

Join BMWC to empower the next generation of men in medicine through mentorship, exposure, and community support. Our mission is to increase the number of Black men entering and succeeding in medical careers.

What Is BMWC?

We host events designed to inspire, educate, and connect aspiring physicians at every stage.

Events Include:

- Mentorship connections with physicians and medical students
- Shadowing and clinical exposure opportunities
- Community service & outreach events
- Pre-med and med student panels
- Medical school prep workshops
- Networking mixers with healthcare leaders
